

I'm requesting that the FCC not limit my ability to obtain local traffic and weather reports while tuned to XM radio or any other satellite provider. This is not any different from my receiving my local television stations via my satellite. The ability to receive these local reports should be available and preventing local reports simply limits my ability to obtain information and limits the free press providing information.